

HEMANT NAIKNAVARE,
President, CREDAI Pune Metro

Cluster development in the only solution, introduction of which is long overdue. The Development Plan for the city has specified the norms for the same and these will be ready for implementation after inviting objections and suggestions. Once in force, this option will provide the right impetus for redevelopment of these structures.